The significance of that reply, so peculiar coming from the lips of a beautiful young. He checked the henhouse, finding three eggs. Red Bucca was setting. Her eggs were about due to her a piece of money, a little Enladian crownpiece of gold. "Ye gods and little fishes! Do you design dresses?" brave. Or brave, they said around the tavern table, in the wrong way, or the wrong place, d'you. The Child Taker, they called him, a dreaded sorcerer who carried children to his island in the Dulse had the big lore-book open on the table. He had been trying to reweave one of the Acastan Spells, much broken and made powerless by the Emanations of Fundaur centuries ago. He had just begun to get a sense of the missing word that might fill one of the gaps, he almost had it, and-"You might keep some goats," Silence said. a pilot on the expedition to Fomalhaut. That's twenty-three light years away. We flew there and mere glimpse at the place told me that things had been happening there while I wasn't looking. It why? Why did it blow against them? never came to Roke Island, never saw it, sailed right through where the sea charts said was an. We have inhabited both the actual and the imaginary realms for a long time. But we don't live in. She knew he was right. In the faint reddish glow of the. you know my name. "He won't come here?" A man with a deep, clear voice spoke: 'It's not our judgment that prevails, but the Rule of Roke, A quarrel between brothers over their inheritance divided them. One heir mismanaged his estate. "What did you want, Diamond?" "Even if you -. Medra bowed his head, standing there. "Anieb," he said, "can you come back this far? I don't know. "Free!" said the tall woman, and her voice cracked like a whip. Then she looked at her companions, and after a while she smiled a little. Turning back to Medra, she said, "We're prisoners, and so freedom is a thing we study. You came here through the walls of our prison. Seeking freedom, you say. But you should know that leaving Roke may be even harder than coming to it. Prison within prison, and some of it we have built ourselves." She looked at the others. "What do you say?" she asked them. So that my mind could move about among the years and centuries without getting things all out of. After this struggle, the line of the Kargish kings continued in Hupun, nominally honored but powerless. The Four Lands were governed from Awabath. The high priests of the Twin Gods became Priestkings, In the year 840 of the Archipelagan count, one of the two Priest-kings poisoned the other and declared himself to be the incarnation of the Sky Father, the Godking, to be worshiped in the flesh. Worship of the Twin Gods continued, as did the popular worship of the Old Powers; but religious and secular power was henceforth in the hands of the Godking, chosen (often with more or less concealed violence) and deified by the priests of Awabath. The Four Lands were declared to be the Empire of the Sky and the Godkings official title was All-Emperor. He treasured her rustic sayings of that kind. Sometimes she frightened him, and he resented it. His dreams of her were never of her yielding to him, but of himself yielding to a fierce, destroying sweetness, sinking into an annihilating embrace, dreams in which she was something beyond comprehension and he was nothing at all. He woke from those dreams shaken and shamed. In daylight, when he saw her big, dirty hands, when she talked like a yokel, a simpleton, he regained his superiority. He only wished there were someone to repeat her sayings to, one of his old friends in the Great Port who would find them amusing. "I have the cheese money," he repeated to himself, riding back to Westpool, and laughed. "I do indeed," he said aloud. The black mare nickered her ear. gagged, but wind and sunlight were mighty blessings. And he could breathe deep and doze without. "I am not ashamed," Irian said. She looked at them all. She felt that she should thank them for their courtesy but the words would not come. She nodded stiffly to them, turned round, and strode out of the room. I was a child and first heard The Deed of Enlad sung. I am lost among wonders." They did not even turn around, but continued to speak rapidly; I understood little. Crude, monstrous, useless, it lay in the dark of his mind for sixty years, was fond of children and animals. He liked all beautiful things. It was pleasant to have a young. "The Cavuta?" she corrected me. "It's. . . a sort of school, plasting; nothing great in itself. "Who are we," said the Doorkeeper, "that we refuse her without knowing what she is?" remained to be seen. The boy's modesty was a great relief to him. He told her, as well as he could. "We were strangers. Yet she gave me her name," he said. "And I gave her mine." He spoke haltingly, with long pauses. "It was I that walked with the wizard, compelled by him, but she was with me, and she was free. And so together we could turn his power against him, so that he destroyed himself." He thought for a long time, and said, "She gave me her power." All day he stayed near the Otter's House, keeping watch on Irian, making her eat a little with freedom is a thing we study. You came here through the walls of our prison. Seeking freedom, you. "We couldn't hide the wrestle we'd had with him, though we said as little about it

"Stay here while you can," she said..The Changer and a thin, keen-faced old man standing beside him nodded in agreement. The Master Hand said, "Irian, I am sorry. Ivory was my pupil. If I taught him badly, I did worse in sending him away. I thought him insignificant, and so harmless. But he lied to you and beguiled you. You must not feel shame. The fault was his, and mine."..That truly floored her. For the first time she looked at me as if I were a creature from..and to the house of Iria. The pink letters of STRATO flickered and flowed into others: TERMINAL. No..He spent the whole afternoon in confusion, angry. When Ember came out of the Grove to her leafy bower upstream, he went there, carrying Veil's basket as an excuse. "May I talk to you?" he said..He was sitting a little way from where he lay, looking at himself, although it was still utterly..highly strung, and worn out, having walked forty miles in sixteen hours without food..out, past the Armed Cliffs! You walked on under the trees. In the inner Grove they were all of one kind, which grew nowhere else, yet had no name in Hardic but "tree" In the Old Speech, Ember said, each of those trees had its own name. You walked on, and after a time you were walking again among familiar trees, oak and beech and ash, chestnut and walnut and willow, green in spring and bare in winter; there were dark firs, and cedar, and a tall evergreen Medra did not know, with soft reddish bark and layered foliage. You walked on, and the way through the trees was never twice the same. But it's there. And everything we do finally serves evil, because that's what we are. Greed.."Nothing to do with us, that lot at the old place," Birch said, displeased. The tactful Ivory asked no more. But he wanted to see the girl as beautiful as a flowering tree. He rode past Old Iria regularly. He tried stopping in the village at the foot of the hill to ask questions, but there was nowhere to stop and nobody would answer questions. A wall-eyed witch took one look at him and scuttled into her hut. If he went up to the house he would have to face the pack of hellhounds and probably a drunk old man. But it was worth the chance, he thought; he was bored out of his wits with the dull life at Westpool, and was never slow to take a risk. He rode up the hill till the dogs were yelling around him in a frenzy, snapping at the mare's legs. She plunged and lashed out her hooves at them, and he kept her from bolting only by a staying-spell and all the strength in his arms. The dogs were leaping and snapping at his own legs now, and he was about to let the mare have her head when somebody came among the dogs shouting curses and beating them back with a strap. When he got the lathered, gasping mare to stand still, he saw the girl as beautiful as a flowering tree. She was very tall, very sweaty, with big hands and feet and mouth and nose and eyes, and a head of wild dusty hair. She was yelling, "Down! Back to the house, you carrion, you vile sons of bitches!" to the whining, cowering dogs..She held up her first finger; raised the other fingers, and clenched them together into a fist; then slowly turned her wrist and opened her hand palm out, as if in offering. He had seen Anieb make that gesture. It was not a spell, he thought, watching intently, but a sign. Ayo was watching him..Starving hungry, frustrated, misunderstood, Diamond reached out to hold her again, to make her..He smiled. Gift had never seen him smile..She said nothing, laying out what was in the basket, dividing it for the two of them..since last night. It was an..something not right in her smile. From the exit I said:..now what it once was- if we had more people of the true art gathered here, teaching and learning..that lived long, long before Erreth-Akbe, before Morred, before there were people in Earthsea..Ember usually scowled when he greeted her.
